

Please do not take action that would "water down" Indiana's telephone privacy law. Since I signed up to have telemarketers blocked (starting Jan '02) I have only had two calls. The Indiana telephone privacy law has prevented many needless interruptions for me and my family.